Karl Rosenthal
Deported to Theresienstadt in 1942.

Karl Rosenthal was born in Künzelsau on January 24th 1872. He lived in Buttenhausen and in Stuttgart and was forced to move to Rexingen on February 28th 1941. According to the Rexingen register, he was an unmarried pensioner and lived with Berta and Sigmund Gideon who were deported to Theresienstadt with him. On September 29th 1942 Karl Rosenthal was taken from Theresienstadt to Treblinka where he was murdered.