

Former Synagogue Memorial in Rexingen

From a Jewish place of worship to a place of remembrance and learning: built in 1837, desecrated in 1938, Protestant church from 1952 onwards

Today a memorial and learning centre with the Isenberg Library and Shavei Zion exhibition

Discover the history of Jewish life from the synagogue, the school and businesses to the cemetery

Jewish history trail

Education

The memorial sites offer...

- Guided tours for groups, schools and individual visitors
- Workshops and projects for young people
- Guided tours of Horb with its six Jewish cemeteries and ancestral searches

If you are interested, we will be happy to help and find a visit to suit you.

✉ bildung@ehemalige-synagoge-rexingen.de

Research

The association...

- Researches, documents and publishes new information about Jewish families in the region
- Is involved in remembrance projects such as laying "Stolpersteine" (stumbling stones)
- Helps maintain the synagogue and the prayer room with organized events

Dialogue & Democracy

- Promotion of interreligious and intercultural dialogue
- Contacts with descendants worldwide, particularly in Israel and the USA
- Strengthening democracy through education and information

Arnold and Friederike Isenberg Library

Specialised Judaica library focusing on Jewish history (worldwide, regional, the Nazi regime), antisemitism, biography, culture, religion, Christian-Jewish dialogue and Israel.

✉ info@isenberg-bibliothek.de

🌐 www.isenberg-bibliothek.de

📍 Freudenstädter Straße 16, Rexingen

🕒 Synagogue with library and exhibition: Wednesdays 4pm–6pm (by appointment), Sundays 2pm–5pm and on request

Exhibition: Shavei Zion - A place of refuge and promise

Discover history:

Find out more about the emigration of Jewish families to Palestine in 1938, and how Shavei Zion was founded from its Southwest German roots

The Jewish Prayer Room Museum in Horb

📖 A place of learning and remembrance

🏛️ Museum with temporary exhibitions

📍 Fürstabt-Gerbert-Straße 2, Horb am Neckar

🕒 Saturdays and Sundays, 2pm-5pm and by appointment

Visit the current exhibition

“We had to get an education for our child”

The educational paths taken by young Jewish people in times of exclusion and persecution by the Nazi state

Open until April 2026

Explore the Jewish history around Horb

Dettensee

Horb

Mühlen

Mühringen

Nordstetten

Rexingen

Support us & become a member

Join us!

Whether you would like to become a member or volunteer, you are very welcome!

Your donation helps!

Volksbank
IBAN DE10 6039 1310 0275 3260 04
BIC: GENODES1VBH

Subscribe to our newsletter!

Stay informed about events and the latest news!

Contact

Association of Patrons and Friends of the Former Synagogue, Rexingen (Träger- und Förderverein Ehemalige Synagoge Rexingen e. V.)

Freudenstädter Straße 16
D - 72160 Horb-Rexingen

Phone +49 (0)157 3116 4886

www.ehemalige-synagoge-rexingen.de
kontakt@ehemalige-synagoge-rexingen.de

Member of the regional memorial group

Gedenkstättenverbund
Gäu-Neckar-Alb e.V.